

DATING ADVICE

9 ESSENTIAL
ONLINE DATING
TIPS FOR MEN

PHOTOS

DO NOT display only one photo or worse, NO photo at all.

DO NOT display photos that don't show you smiling. Women want to make sure you have teeth and that they are white.

DO NOT display photos with only sunglasses on. Women want to see your eyes.

NO blurry photos please.

NO group photos of you and your friends because we won't know which one is you and most likely be attracted to one of your friends instead.

SPELLING

If you cannot spell, do not even think about asking a woman out. Sorry, but proper spelling is essential, and usually a pet peeve of women with online dating.

Women are not asking that you have a vast vocabulary, even though it's not a bad trait to have. We just ask that you know the essentials like: your and you're. Nothing complicated. And if you truly suck at spelling, but are an awesome guy, then please have a friend spell check for you before hitting the send button. You might be surprised by how many more responses you get.

LIES

DO NOT lie about your age or height. Do you really think we aren't going to find out? Why would you want to waste your time and our time. If you're not tall, it's okay. There are lots of women who don't care about height. And for those who do, you're just going to piss them off when they meet you. Even if the person ends up loving your personality, the fact that you lied will show that you aren't trustworthy. Same goes for age.

Bye bye!

PROFILE

Do I really need to give you a tip on this one? No profile...No response. It's that simple. See how empty this page is, that's how empty your message box will be. Just sayin'.

HEY...

DO NOT send messages that start off with "Hey Sexy," "Hey Baby," "Hey Hottie," etc... We don't know you and after this we won't want to know you because you'll come across as being a jerk, creepy, desperate, a douche bag... You get the point.

There are so many ways to start a conversation. How about simply asking how our day is going or respond to something we've written in our profile. Show that you're interested in us as a person and not just how our picture looks.

DON'T BE A STALKER

If you send a woman a message and she doesn't respond it means she's not interested or she has too many messages to respond to everyone. Or it could simply be because she's tried to respond a polite "not interested" message to only make you think, she is. Not sure where the miscommunication happens there, but if a woman responds no thank you or not interested, don't respond. Leave her alone and move on! We don't want to be friends and just hang out. Not interested clearly means...not interested.

GHOSTING

If you aren't interested, don't send a message to have us respond and then never hear from you again. Or worse, you text or call for days/weeks, plan a date to meet, and then ghost us hours before meeting. Especially, if we are a single mom, who has taken the time to find a babysitter just to meet you. WTH! I just have never understood this. If you change your mind, be a man, and just tell us. Trust me, we won't be hurt and respect you more for it.

READ OUR PROFILE

Please do not ask us questions that are clearly on our profile. All that tells us is that you didn't even take the time to read our profile or that you can't read. I'm not sure which of the two is worse.

OH, IS THIS YOUR FATHER?

This is the question people will ask if you look like you can be our father and we go out with you. Sorry, but all I can say to that is...YUCK! If people confuse you as our dad, instead of our date, I think we might die so it's never going to happen.
